MTO force hits 1,999

Local population count at MTO Operations Center, which is now a part of the number of the job, now the sum of the job, has passed the 1,999 mark.

Fortune retires', stays on

William C. Fortune, civilian, relieved William C. Fortune, Navy captain, as commander of the MTO Operations Center.

Following 31 years of military service, Capt. Fortune was active June 30 and was relieved by William C. Fortune, civilian, as commander of the MTO Operations Center.

Fortune was one of the members of the MTO Operations Center, which is now a part of the number of the job, now the sum of the job, has passed the 1,999 mark.

day. Rainfall for the month was listed at 3.70 inches. Meanwhile the Corps of Engineers at Mobile, construction agent for NASA, has under study an apparent low bid of $17,280,157 on the dual position rocket test stand which will be the tallest structure in Mississippi. Offer of Koppers Co., Inc. (Malan Construction Department) of New York was low among six bids opened by the Corps Tuesday. Government estimate was $19,302,149 and Paul Hardeman, Inc., of Stanton, Calif., was apparently second low at $18,678,268.

Work calls for erection of three concrete piers approximately 158 feet tall and a 106-foot steel tower on the east and central piers, steel flame deflector, test control center and subsidiary facilities.

Hyde Construction Corp. of Jackson and Thornton Construction Co. of Hancock, Mich., which have some other contract at MTO, were low bidders Monday on site work. Their price was $617,215 and it is now being evaluated.

Installation of the electrical distribution system and substation for the test site was completed last week at a cost of $228,000 by Barco Electrical Construction Co., the Corps at MTO, reported. The new sub-station is just off Rt. 43 South of the construction area.

Legion fair tops Fourth calendar

The American Legion's traditional Fourth of July fair, with a colorful fireworks display on the Sunday night, will be the major attraction for all ages this holiday week in Bay St. Louis. D.W. North is general chairman for the event which gets under way with a fish fry Friday night at 5 p.m. The beach in the area of the Legion Home has been cleared and booths are now being erected. Activity will begin at 5 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

Bay Police Chief Lathon Garriga announced that Washington Street will be restricted to one-way traffic from Hancock Street to the beach while the fair is in progress and no parking will be permitted on the beach side of South Beach Boulevard from the Legion to St. Charles Street to allow orderly traffic flow. He has arranged with John McDonald for use of his vacant lot at Sycamore and S. Beach as a parking area (Cont. on Page 6.)

Nickels scarce as 5-cent coke

If you have trouble getting nickels to play your favorite pin-ball game or your change from the grocer includes more dimes and less nickels than usual, you're just one of many in the area. There's a temporary (we hope) and not very serious shortage of nickels from Mobile to New Orleans.

Both Joe Burrow, cashier at Merchants Bank and Robert Hamilton, Hancock Bank vice president, confirmed the local shortage of nickels yesterday.

While neither bank official was sure of the whys of this coin's scarcity both expressed the view the problem would be short lived.

Collectors and hoarders may be responsible for the absence of silver dollars and Kennedy half dollars, but there is no indication that the five cent piece is being stashed away.

Some relief is expected today when Merchants Bank receives 8,000 of the coins from New Orleans.

Official view on Bikinis

World was city patrolman Billy Carbonette who don't think it will happen here. Next came Sheriff Ladner who just happened to be chatting with Tax Assessor George Heitzman who remained wisely silent.
George Heitzman given it much thought, guess that's the little problem I'll have to face when it confronts my city father Cyril Glover replied: "At my advanced age, I really don't give a damn!" Commissioner Warren Traub truly don't give a damn! He treated just like a speeding offender, warning, then arrest if it doesn't suffice.
After a warning, then arrest if it doesn't suffice.
After a warning, then arrest if it doesn't suffice.

Summer time visitors

Green always manages to look lovely even after a weekend, to put it mildly. Visiting her and the Waldo were daughter Mary Jane (Mrs. Ralph) Christian and approximately one-half children. Ralph arrived the group Friday night but left early Saturday for Pensacola and the boat regatta. The Christians live in the Crescent City.

Back list bulges

Unfortunately we have a big fat sick list this week. Jane Ellis Cuevas was rushed to Hancock General last Thursday. Ed Ruhr, was taken to the same hospital at about same time; Little Arlene Osbourne, Eula Mae and Billy's sister, was released Friday, she was a pneumonia victim; Little had the same ailment; Mrs. Sedonia Luchik, (William Luchik's mother) is also a patient; Rosemary McFarland was released early last week and John Garza looks most comfortable in his hospital bed with one leg attached to a cast. He doesn't have a broken leg. . . something with his sciatic nerve. Shannon (Mrs. Tom) Roseberry is continuing chest congestion; Pat Viguerie has been in the weather and Capt. Charles Traub has been on the list for the past weeks. Hope they're feeling all very better.

Clear for a wedding

On Monday through hovering clouds to shine brightly on the Cindy Carver when she and Bill Lumpkin were wed last Saturday afternoon. Her parents Tonia and "Toady" never called John) tossed a large reception in the Russian newly remodeled party room. A band imported from New Orleans furnished melodies for dancing and a good time was had by all. Cindy was a doll in her traditionally wedding gown and chapel length gown with bodice of important lace. Lela (Mrs. Walter) Yarborough aided and abetted in the nuptials. Among the guests were Mayor and Mrs.
Ladner, Mrs. Ada Edel, "Nookie" and Louis Jacobl, Ervin Ladner, Aurelia and Buck Woodcock, Ernest Vera couldn't get away as the de Montluzin's in the big city of New York: Della and Ory Bourne, Mayfield, John Carver, Jr.; sisters of the bride, two daughters and Janelle, Mary and Mac McCall.

SOUTHERN BELL AWARDS - E.C. Strong, left, Bay St. Louis service foreman for Southern Bell Telephone Co., displays spirit of service citation presented him by E.D. Bookout, Harrisonburg district plant manager, at luncheon Tuesday to Bookout, R.M. Fleming, cable repairman, and C.L. Ladner, cable splicer, both of whom got 15-year service pins.

Marriage Licenses

Applications of local interest for marriage licenses issued in the last week by Circuit Clerk Lamar Otis are as follows:

William Charles Lumpkin of Poplarville and Cynthia Ann Carver of Waveland; Larry La-Rue Kendrick of Gulfport and Peggy Jean Stewart of Rt. 2,
of Rt. 2, Poplarville and Delores Ann Thornton of Bay St.
Louis; O.V. Bond and Gloria Elaine Lavigne, both of Rt. 2, Perkinston.

The rains came

We now have two valid explanations for our abundance of rainfall. . . Mrs. Powell Glass arrived for her annual visit with Joan and Red. . . she declares she's more reliable than a diving rod any day, and Betty and Anthony Protti and little ones are here for a 20 day vacation. . . they too claim credit for the precipitation.

Sports scene

Something must have been biting off the seavall over the weekend—we didn't brave the rain to find out what, but eager anglers were getting soaked and still casting their rods just as if the sun had been blazing away.

Frantic father

Roy Saux has decided that being the "heavy father" is not for him. . . his Father's Day was to be quietly dedicated to the four little Sauxes and Kare.
his first surprise was the news that the truck was damaged almost totally in an accident involving the mechanic. . . when son Bobby was dispatched to check on this report. Another phone call informed him that the motor of the family car had erupted in a puff of smoke. . .
we can only advise Roy to call Nancy Gex. . . she quit dodging the blows, and her acceptance of such could help him adopt the proper attitude. . . this might also help the James Wingers. . .
they've had several such days also of late.

Teen Times

Last week we commented with pride on those who were putting the summer months to good use either by working, helping their parents, participating in sports, taking extra classes or pursuing hobbies. Now we regretfully mention the fact that there are a few making absolute nuisances of themselves driving automobiles and in a few cases, motor bikes, like maniacs. The peace of day and night alike is shattered with the sound of shrieking brakes, muffled exhausts, tire spun gravel and uncultured voices yelling senseless phrases. Don't get the idea we're complaining about anyone having fun. There are many, including Steve Poindexter for instance, who drive their motor bikes sensibly...we really don't mind the noise, but start shuddering when we see anyone taking chances because one wreck on such vehicle is usually the one and only...there's little left after hitting the pavement! So please, take it easy...and have a little consideration of those old fogeys, parents, like your reporter who just can't help worrying about your welfare! End of lecture.

TEEN-AGE MYSTERY OF THE WEEK David Williams, formerly thought to be one of the "quiet ones" (and they're the ones to watch), has been surprising all with his romantic prowess...now no one can discover the identity of his latest heart interest.

Jeannie Rutherford (our most faithful Teen Time reporter), manages to find time for fun while assisting us...she, Margie Burch and her cousin Becky Sharp swam in the Gulf Palms pool last Thursday after Margie and Becky had spent the early part of the day as Jeannie's guests. Jeannie was their guest Thursday night and returned home Friday. Jeannie, who has joined Patsy Elliott and Betty Smith as a member of the Sea Coast Echo Summer-Miss Fifties bowling team on Thursday nights, is also in line for a very special happy birthday wish...she was 15 on June 28.

Kathy??? has stars in her eyes over a young man whose name we're told is Tommy. Local girls were truly good sports taking dunkings at the OLG Church fair...some who didn't worry about hair-dos included Margaret McDowell, Connie Demoran, Ilona Marquez, Lisa Monti, Shirley Jo Richardson, and so on and on.

Welcome home Barbara Brunst who spent last month in the Crescent City with her grandmother. She didn't mind as she saw lots of her best boy friend, Emmett Garrity. Happy 18th birthday wishes go to Pat Borgeades...Pat, remember when you were so eager to outgrow Teen Times a couple of years ago?

Cheryl Meredith received a warm welcome from her cousin Debbie Favre upon her arrival home from Houma, La. last Wednesday.

Some really warm romancing going on...Charlotte Lader and Jackie Morreale are "on" again; still constant twosomes include Sue Buehler and Lionel Fayard, Dana Saucier and James Fayard, Susie Rhodes and Leslie Blaise, Cheryl Lader and Carl Fricke and Bunny Netto and Allan Sarraz. Lonnie Schultz has a new gal, but apparently no one knows who she is!

Karen Williams has returned home after visiting her aunt, Mrs. Jerry Morreale in Canton. Riley Walker is spending most of his spare time riding his new motor bike (cautiously we pray) while spending the summer in Clarksdale.

Mildred Parker spent last weekend at Southern...her steady was obviously the reason for the trip.

Get well wishes go to Pat Brown who sustained a broken finger while playing softball last Thursday night.

A junior dance at Bay-Waveland Yacht Club was on the entertainment agenda Saturday night.

HULA DANCER, MISS SOUTHERN AND CONTESTANTS PROVIDE VARIED ENTERTAINMENT FOR MISS BAY ST. LOUIS PAGEANT. (Photos by Ed Fayard, Jr.)

Lewis Kempf has just returned from a two week visit in Mexico City where he was the guest of Jose Diaz, son of the Consul General. Jose is now spending some time as Lewis' guest in his Clermont Harbor home.

Judges really had a time making decisions in this year's Miss Bay St. Louis contest, so pretty and talented were the candidates. We must confess it was the first such event we've found time to witness, and frankly were impressed. The Jaycees, Jayettes and contestants plus entertainers and former queens are all to be congratulated on the pageant. Betty Smith, Miss Bay St. Louis, 1964 gracefully walked off with top honors, Diane Miller and Ann Clark, first and second alternates with Dennis Seuzeneau and Sue Walters close runners-up. Former queens Lana Taylor, Sue Breath and Nita Kay Erwin crowned winners and Nita Kay's "swan song" (she'll soon be Mrs. "Jimbo" Green) was most touching. One of the highlights was Wanda Mae Arlinkaco's hula dance...she's a diminutive brunette with long hair on the ball and her act had the audience howling for more. Pennie Sue Webb was lovely as usual in red chiffon and illustrated the reason for her selection as Miss University of Southern Mississippi. Prima Thomas made the organ good to look at as well as to listen to and the young Marshalls, Carla and Steve, played cool accordions. There have been rumbles that due to lack of enthusiasm of girls 18 and over this might be the last such event, and honestly hope this is not so...our girls are just as pretty and as talented as any and think we should continue to send a local representative to the Miss Mississippi contest.

Candy Mathers left Monday for California where she'll spend the month of July.

Carol and Ellen Western have returned from their visit to New York City and the World's Fair...they enjoyed the trip but were much more impressed by Disneyland which they toured last summer.

Adrianna Manfredi of Columbia, South America...boarder at St. Joseph Academy, is spending her summer vacation at Susie Borgeades' home in Lakeshore.

Warren Traub is literally seeing the world while on his annual Annapolis summer cruise. He left Le Havre, France, last week and is now in England. He'll be home on leave next month...that is if he can tear himself away from his best girl long enough to return to the Bay.

Jeane Lagasse has recovered from her recent tonsillectomy. Jeane and brother Jay are also proud owners of six pedigree collie pups which were produced by mamma dog Sar on June 12.

Waveland Notes

BY CECILE TURCOTTE HO 7-4659

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar DelCuzze, Albert Gleaser and Tony Chetta, all of New Orleans, are guests of Mrs. Ada Edel for two weeks.

Mrs. Ed. Clay of New Orleans was the weekend guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Placide Bourgeois.

Dawn Penrose arrived home on Monday...from what we hear she was much more impressed with Yale than the World's Fair. Lorraine de Monthuzin, however has glowing reports of her three week stay in New York and her trips to the fair.

Gail Stewart is another with a fabulous summer job...she's swimming and boating counselor at Camp Osoha in Boulder Junction, Wisc.

Bren Wilkerson of New Orleans is the guest of his cousin, Pat Murphy, at his Felicity Street home.

Tanis Moran is in line for get well wishes...she had an emergency appendectomy at Hancock General last Thursday night.

Jeane Lagasse has recovered from her recent tonsillectomy. Jeane and brother Jay are also proud owners of six pedigree collie pups which were produced by mamma dog Sar on June 12.

Miss Cheryl Mayer is spending a week in New Orleans visiting Miss Phyllis Bologna.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hascund and family of New Orleans spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. W. A. Mapp.

Guests of Mrs. Ada Edel on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Chetta and children and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pursell and daughters, all of New Orleans.

Stanley Weidman is in New Orleans this week as guests of Mrs. Rita Johns and son, Freddie.

Alvin Bodie of New Orleans was the guest Sunday of his sister, Mrs. Rossignol and son, Roy.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Turcotte, Jr., and children motored to Perkinston, Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Clement.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Wicks and daughter, Vickie, of Pensacola, Fla., were weekend guests of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Henley.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Indovina and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tridico, daughters of Mrs. Albert J. Piler of Waveland, have just returned from a ten day dancing vacation in the Ozarks.

Shirley and Johnny Ryan are happy parents at last. Little John Joseph arrived at Gulfport Memorial on June 25, weighing five pounds, five and one-half ounces. Mrs. Pauline Necaise, Lakeshore postmistress, is the maternal grandmother.

Fair visitors

We'll advise anyone who like ourselves is unable to get to the World's Fair to go and have a chat with Emily (Mrs. Rene) de Monthuzin. She, Rene and Lorraine really had an exciting time in the big city where they spent a leisurely three weeks seeing everything there was to see, plays, museums, and of course, the fair. So vivid are her descriptions of such exhibits as the Spanish pavilion, Coca Cola and Ford displays we could have remained to listen all day.

Phyl Lagasse is one of the newest new car owners...she got her new beige model on Saturday.

Rae (Mrs. Ray) Rasmussen is to be congratulated...after suffering severe fractures of both wrists something over a year ago, she's bowling again and had a 125 game last Thursday night.

Guess what? Mrs. Rosa (Mamma) Betz is not only up and about but she is looking absolutely wonderful and is even SIGHTS AND SOUNDS ALONG THE WAY - A solitary speed hull gliding over the water leaving an enormous white wake in its wake; colorful woodpeckers appearing more numerous than usual pecking away at trees all over the place, fresh green lawns rejuvenated by rain, at last and the soothing sound of rain drops on the roof.

BUY IN MISSISSIPPI

Five years ago Mississippians were spending $635,000,000 with retail and wholesale firms outside the State. The sales tax revenue alone on just half this amount would run our state colleges and universities for a year.

Since the Colonel MIM program of buying at home was started, significant gains have been made in reversing this flow of Mississippi dollars into other states. With Mississippi wholesale and retail sales totaling over $4½ billion each year, even a small per cent of this represents a big loss to our State.

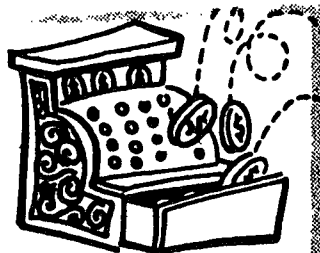

Support Colonel MIM and help keep our hard earned Mississippi dollars at home.

COLONEL MIM*
*MONEY IN MISSISSIPPI

WHEN DOLLARS
STAY AT HOME

Dollars you spend in your community turn over three to four times and find their way back into your cash register. These dollars help create new jobs, new industries and furnish additional tax revenue.

WHEN DOLLARS
ARE SPENT AWAY

Dollars spent outside Mississippi are gone forever. Your community loses, your state loses and even more important, you lose. Think twice and you'll see the wisdom of buying at home.

Sailors race despite wind, weekend rain

Bay-Waveland Yacht Club was the scene of exciting sailing activity last weekend as strong winds and threatening showers did not deter the many skippers who participated in the races. One junior race was postponed due to the late hour and a threatening squall on Saturday afternoon.

Winners Saturday were: Walter Chamberlain, Ray Stiefel, expert class; Barbara Quigley, A class.

Four winners on Sunday were: Basil Kennedy, Harry Chapman, experts; Norman Lamb, A class; Lon Adams, juniors. Instructors of the racing rules added suspense to the races and experience for some of the sailors in protest hearing procedures.

Fourth of July weekend calendar calls for races and fireworks. Skippers from Bay-Waveland will participate in an invitational regatta at Biloxi Yacht Club as well as in as many four-hour races as can be held here.

Bay and bayou

By HANK EVANS Rt. 1, Box 314C

What's in a name - of a fish, that is? Mainly a lot of confusion, if you ask us.

Take, for example, our popular game fish known locally as the green trout. He's not even a trout, but actually is the spotted bass (Micropterus punctulatus, if you can stand it in Latin). And in other parts of the country you'll find this scrappy fellow called by such names as diamond bass, bronzeback, grass bass, redeye, and Kentucky bass.

The bluegill frequently is called a perch or bream but is really a sunfish. We first met the bluegill's close relative, the shellcracker, in Florida where he wears the title "pumpkinseed".

Offshore and in the Bay we find the excellent speckled trout. To Floridians this is the spotted sea trout, which isn't so bad. But by the time you've moved up the Atlantic coast to New York he has become the weakfish. Not for any lack of strength, it's because of the tender flesh and easily torn mouth.

But our sac-a-lait (Pomoxis annularis or Pomoxis sparoides) wins the grand prize for confusion. The local name is "Cajun" for "bag-of-milk", of course. But we couldn't call you wrong if you referred to this fish as a bachelor perch, bachelor shad, banklick, bridge perch, calico bass, campbellite, chinquapin, crappie, goggle-eye grass bass, John Demon lampighter, papermouth, rambler, roach, speckled perch, straw bass, suckley perch, timber crappie, tinnmouth, or tin perch!

So whenever you call a fish we'll go along with it as long as it's fun on the line and tasty on the plate.

Although his newly-opened eatery on Central Avenue has been keeping Jack Gordy very much on the go, he still finds time for an occasional evening of soft-crabbing or flounder-fishing along the beach. Jack's favorite hunting ground lies between Taconi's wharf and St. Stanislaus, and he says catches, particularly the flounders, were very promising last week.

Jack also mentioned seeing a number of sizeable stingrays in the shallows, so don't forget to wear adequate shoes when wading the beach, and SLIDE those feet to avoid stepping on one of these. Even a small stingray can inflict a nasty and painful wound. Personally, we prefer to have someone else along with us, both for company and "just-in-case".

Three Boy Scout troops from Bay St. Louis had a successful camp-out at Ted Stechmann's farm last weekend. Even though the weather was rainy a good part of the time, it hadn't seemed to dampen the boys' spirits when we looked in on them Saturday. The camp area was a hive of activities, games, and savory outdoor cookery. Participating were Stechmann's Troop 217, Troop 208 with Scoutmaster L.S. Pahlman and Troop 220 under the leadership of W.R. Christian.

Fresh water fishing up Jourdan River has lagged behind that on the Pearl but is catching up. Even though their start was delayed by rain until the afternoon of last Sunday Tony Exterenz, Jr., A. Maufrey, and L.S. Elliot returned before dark with a well-filled ice box. Their string of green trout, shellcracker and bluegill was landed in the vicinity of Bayou La Croix.

Frank Corso and his wife, Marion, have been enjoying good catches of hard crabs, dropping their nets off their new pier on North Beach.

Last reminder: Game Warden Pat Toomey, the sheriff's office in the Courthouse, and Al Kingston's barber and sport shop are among places where the new fishing and hunting licenses are available. We've got ours. How 'bout you?

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Garber returned last week from a Northern trip. They spent several days in Washington, D. C., where they formerly lived, then went to Buffalo, N.Y., where they were met by her brother-in-law and sister, Judge and Mrs. Bernard Ryan, and motored to the Ryans' home on Lake Ontario for the weekend. They continued last Monday to Stratford, Ontario, for the Shakespearean festival, attending three of the plays before returning home via Niagara Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Haas are expecting as guests for the weekend Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hobbs of Jackson.

Miss Zervigon is to marry William Reeves

Of interest where the groom-elect's family spends much leisure time is the announcement of the engagement of Miss Anna Maria Zervigon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mario Zervigon of New Orleans, to William Dale Reeves, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Edwin Reeves of New Orleans. The wedding will be Aug. 21 at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church there.

The bride-elect is a graduate of St. Martin's Protestant Episcopal School, attended the University of Tennessee in Knoxville and is now enrolled at Newcomb College. Mr. Reeves was graduated from Ladore Newman School and Williams College in Williamstown, Mass., and is now attending the graduate school of Tulane University.

2 crashes Sunday at 90 and Beach

Two traffic mishaps at U.S. 90 and the Beach Blvd. were reported Sunday by Police Chief Lashon Garriga.
